

ACADEMY OF EMERGENCY CARE
Emergency Dept. Cork University Hospital
www.sportscareacademy.com

Emergency First Responder

INSTRUCTOR

Who should attend: Practitioners who wish to attain the EFR instructor standard thus allowing them to join a faculty / recognised institution that provide EFR courses.

Pre-Requisites: Candidates must be certified as a CFR – Instructor & be a PHECC Registered Practitioner.

Duration: 3 Days

Course Content:

- Students Expectations
- Course Content & Aims
- PHECC requirements
- Pre-Learning
- Course Delivery Concepts
- Training Delivery
- Legislation, PHECC Guidelines, Teaching EFR to the standard
- Defining aims & objectives
- Lesson Plans, Communication & Presentation Skills
- EFR Course administration
- Written Examination & PHECC Assessment Preparation

Assessment: EFR Instructors must complete successfully PHECC skill stations, deliver a portion of an EFR course & complete a written examination in order to obtain qualification.

Certification: PHECC Certification as an Emergency First Responder – Instructor (EFR-I)

Cost: €950.00

Contact: dave@sportscareacademy.com or www.sportscareacademy.com to book online.